Galatians 5 24 says

Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

Second Corinthians 13 4 says

For to be sure, he was crucified in weakness, yet he lives by God's power.

Likewise, we are weak in him, yet by God's power we will live with him in our dealing with you.

Second Corinthians 5 21 says

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Galatians 2 20 says

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.

The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 3 13 says

Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: "Cursed is everyone who is hung on a pole."

Galatians 6 14 says

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Ephesians 2 14 says

For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility

Ephesians 2 16 says

and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility.

Philippians 2 6 to 8 we read

Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage;

rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross!

Philippians 3 10 and 11 say

I want to know Christ, yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.

Colossians 2 13 to 15 we read

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having cancelled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross.

And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Colossians 1 19 to 21 we read

For it was the good pleasure [of the Father] that in him should all the fulness dwell;

and through him to reconcile all things unto himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross;

through him, I say, whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens.

And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works,

Hebrews 12 2 says

fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

First Peter 2 24 says

"He himself bore our sins" in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness;

"by his wounds you have been healed."

Yes ! Let us crucify the flesh with its passions and desires and fulfil God's statutes.
