Matthew 9 13 says

But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

Matthew 20 28 says

just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Matthew 12 7 says

If you had known what these words mean, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent.

To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important, than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will save it.

Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

Romans 3 24, 25 and 26 we read and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus

God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood, to be received by faith.

He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

First Corinthians 15 3 and 4 say

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance : that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

First Corinthians 5 7 says

Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened.

For our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ:

Yes ! Let us honor the Lord with shouts of grateful praise and make good what we have vowed and do what is right and just which is more acceptable to the LORD.

Let us desire mercy and acknowledgment of God and offer every part of ourselves to him as an instrument of righteousness.
